Load the Card Dimension taking into account the following requirements:

- Control the changes that the attributes can suffer by using the Slowly Changing Dimension (SCD) component.

- Transform the data in such a way that their meaning is completely explicit, not raising doubts about their meaning at the time of data analysis.

- Detect the quality problems existing in data. The identified problems should be stored in a table specially created for that purpose.